

LIST OF STATE GOVERNMENT SCHEMES 2017

---

1.MANASWINI SCHEME

The Karnataka State Government in association with revenue department has launched 'Manaswini Scheme' for the divorcee or unmarried women in the State.

Objectives of the Scheme:

- Under this Scheme, the State Government provides a monthly pension of Rs 500 to unmarried/divorcee poor women. In this Scheme, women who are either unmarried or divorcees and fall below the poverty line are eligible for pension.
- After this Scheme, unmarried or divorcee women above 65 years of age are eligible for financial support under the Indira Gandhi National Old age Pension Scheme.

2.Krishi Bhagya Scheme

The State Government has launched a new flagship Scheme to achieve revolutionary change in Karnataka's farm sector named 'Krishi Bhagya Scheme'.

Objectives of the Scheme

- The State Government started this Scheme for farmers with an aim to offer a solution that enables rain-fed farming towards sustainable agriculture. In this program, Government is supporting farmers to make a farm pond with polyethylene lining (to prevent percolation), install pump and sprinkler irrigation system (for efficient water utilization).
- This program helps farmers to harvest rainwater in their farm and irrigation system helps to use those water efficiently for agriculture. If farmers take proper advantage of this program they can save their crops or enhance yield by about 30%. By delivering that much more income, this program hopes to bring sustainability into rain-fed farming

3.Ksheera Bhagya Scheme

On 1st August 2013, the Karnataka State Government launched 'Ksheera Bhagya Scheme' in association with Karnataka Co-operative Milk Producers Federation Ltd. (KMF) & all its milk union for school and anganwadis children's in the State.

Objectives of the Scheme

- To prevent malnutrition in children
- To improve the nutritional and health status of children
- The main motto of the Scheme is to prevent malnutrition in children & to improve the nutritional and health status of children in the State. Students from Class 1st to 10th studying in Government, Government-aided schools and Anganwadi children's are getting benefits under this Scheme.
- The program is targeting 65 lakh children studying in Class 1st up to Class 10th in around 51,000 Government schools and 39 lakh children's in around 64,000 Anganwadis in the State.
- This free milk Scheme helps to tackle malnutrition among children in rural areas. Milk with constituents such as calcium, proteins, carbohydrates, vitamins, zinc and riboflavin is a complete food which is necessary for a child to become healthy and intelligent.

4. Gas Bhagya Scheme

The State Government has announced a new Scheme named 'Gas Bhagya Scheme' for women of the State.

Scheme's Objectives

- This Scheme helps those women who used to cook food using kerosene oil, wood, paper, and cow dung cake and crop residue.
- The main motto of this Scheme is to provide a smoke-free and healthy environment to the women across the State.
- Government took initiative to provide them a smoke-free and healthy environment with the help of free gas stove and LPG gas connection in the State. The Government has aimed to empower women and protecting their health and reducing the serious health hazards associated with cooking based on fossil fuel

5. Anna Bhagya Scheme

The State Government has launched a most awaited Scheme named Anna Bhagya Scheme in association with Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs Department.

Scheme's Objectives

- The main motto of this Scheme is to provide rice free of cost for people who belong to below poverty line[B.P.L]. The Anna Bhagya Scheme was improved in the recent State budget and now, a single-member family will get 7 kg of rice while a 10 member family will get 70 kg per month.

6. Shaadi Bhagya Scheme

The State Government has launched 'Shaadi Bhagya Scheme' in October 2013 for the marriage of minority community women. This Scheme implemented by the Directorate of Minorities in the Karnataka State.

Scheme's Objectives

- The main motto of the Scheme is to provide financial assistance for the backward Muslim women during their marriage. In this Scheme, the beneficiaries get Rs. 50,000 as a financial assistance from the State Government.
- The main aim of this Scheme is to bring a positive change after a girl child is born to the family, to support the family financially for the marriage of a girl, to discourage any minor girl marriage in the State and encourage marriages only after the girl has attained the legal age for marriage.

7. Laptop Bhagya Scheme:

The State Government has launched the new Scheme for SC/ST Students named 'Laptop Bhagya Scheme'. The Karnataka Social Welfare department has decided to provide free laptops for the SC/ST students who are pursuing professional courses.

Objectives the Scheme:

- – The Government has started this Yojana to encourage the students towards education.
- – This laptop Yojana's main motto is student's growth in academics.
- – Government has launched this Scheme to motivate and connect students with technology.
- – To help students in their studies through technology.
- – For increasing euphoria among students in their studies with world knowledge.
- – To divert students mind towards Present education technology & IT.

8. Mukhya Mantri Adarsh Gram Yojana Scheme

- Under this Scheme, the State Government aims to convert about 150 villages into "Adarsh Grams"(Model Villages).

Aims of Mukhya Mantri Adarsh Gram Yojana

- Development of villages and village peoples has been the main motto of the Scheme.
- This Scheme will provide all physical and social infrastructure to these villages.
- It will provide all round socio-economic development of these villages.
- This Scheme will also lower the difference between city and village peoples, as now they also will use some latest and advanced technologies.
- Literacy rate, infant mortality rate, basic education and many other things will get a boom under this Scheme.

9. Guru Chethana Scheme

The State Government has launched “Guru Chetana Scheme” to improve the quality of education in the State.

Objective:

The objective of this Scheme is to provide opportunities to the teachers to enhance their skills, ability to learn and increase the base of knowledge to improve the quality of education. The officers of the Department of Public Instructions will design the framework and strive for the successful implementation of Guru Chetana Scheme.

For the success of Guru Chetana Scheme, the State Government will select some experts along with teachers as resource persons to implement the Scheme across the State. All persons will get benefited from this Scheme.

10. Mathru Purna Scheme

The State Government of Karnataka launched “Mathru Purna Scheme” for pregnant and lactating poor women across the State. The aim of the Scheme is to provide at least one nutritious meal every day to pregnant women particularly those living in rural areas of the State.

Objective:

The objective of this Scheme is to improve maternal health that have a direct impact on the women and child’s nutrition. Under the Scheme, the estimated cost of each meal could be around Rs. 21 per meal. The meal to pregnant women would be provided for 15 months that means it starts from the time of pregnancy to up to six months after delivery. This Scheme will help in curb child malnutrition across the State.

11. Aarogya Bhagya Scheme

The State Government of Karnataka announced the Scheme named Arogya Bhagya Scheme for Universal Health Coverage (UHC). The Scheme will cover all the 1.40 crore households in the State. Under the Scheme, all the eligible household will get free health care services.

Objective of the Scheme:

The main goal of the Scheme is to provide health care Scheme in the State in Government as well as private hospitals. The Scheme will avail for all without any discrepancy among APL and BPL card holders. The Scheme will be available for all citizen of the State with free medical health care including emergency care at Government and private hospitals.

The State Government has allocated a funding of Rs 869 crore for the Scheme. The Arogya Bhagya Scheme merges seven existing Government sponsored health care programs.

12. Yuva Yuga Skill Training Scheme

A new skill training Scheme named as “Yuva Yuga” has been launched in the State. The Yuva Yuga Scheme is aimed at creating about 10 Lakh skilled jobs in the State by providing new-age technology skill training to the youth. In 2017-18 alone, under the Yuva Yuga Scheme, the State Government would train about 1.10 Lakh youths.

Under the Scheme, youth would be trained to become job ready for about 328 job roles across industries. Yuva Yuga program was announced in 2015-16 financial budget.

The Scheme would provide skills in line with the current industry demands. Skills would be provided to the youth to make them employable for entry and mid level job roles. People up to 10 years of experience can join the Yuva Yuga training programs and enhance their skills for better employment opportunities.

13. Kaushalya Karnataka

Kaushalya Karnataka is an ambitious skill development Scheme of State Government of Karnataka under which unemployed youth would be provided skill training.

Objective:

The main objective of the Scheme is to enhance the employability of youth by enhancing the skill through industry ready skill development programs. The Government has launched a dedicated website www.kaushalkar.com where the detailed information can be found about the Scheme. Through the Kaushalya Karnataka Scheme, the interested youth can acquire necessary skills required for employment and earn their livelihood.

14. Suvarna Krishi Grama Yojana – Increasing Farmers Income

A new Scheme named as “Suvarna Krishi Grama Yojana” or “Golden Agriculture Village Scheme” has been launched by the State Government with an aim to increase farmers income by 20% in one year. The Scheme has been launched along with International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics (ICRISAT).

Objective:

The main objective of the Scheme is to transform rural areas by developing an impact oriented participatory model using State of the art technologies. More integrated and sustainable rural development can be achieved by scaling up the model in the State. Under the Scheme, the State Government will bring science-led development to farmer’s doorstep with technical support from premier institutions such as ICRISAT and State universities.

15. Mukhyamantri Santwana Harish Yojana to Help Road Accident Victims

State Government has launched the new Scheme to help road accident victims to get the treatment in time. Under the Scheme, the Government will provide free treatment to road accident victims for the first 48 hours in the nearest Government or private hospital. The Scheme was launched on 8 March 2016. The Scheme is named after Harish Nanjappa, who donated his eyes moments before his death in a road accident in February 2016.

Key highlights of Mukhyamantri Santwana Harish Yojana

- The Scheme will provide treatment assistance to victims of road accidents across the State irrespective of their financial status or nationality.
- Immediate medical relief will be provided to the victim during the Golden Hour with financial aid up to 25000 during the first 48 hours of treatment.
- The victim will receive medical care for first 48 hours and get treatment at any hospital. All hospitals will be directed not to deny treatment to accident victims.

- A software covering hospital registration, patient registration, claims submission and packages will be installed for the proper implementation of the Scheme.
  - Emergency toll free helplines will also be set up to help accident victims.
-

16. Indira Canteen Scheme Bengaluru

This is the State Government initiative which aims to provide food at low cost to the urban poor.

“Indira Canteen would serve the migrants who come to Bengaluru with a dream to build something. “No person in Bengaluru should ever go hungry and the canteens are a great means towards it”. In the Indira Canteen, three-time meals will be served at a very reasonable price.