35	364/2019	Petitioner is present and he is ready for settlement through conciliation. In fact, in the petition as well as notice issued to the Respondent, the Petitioner has given proposal of amicable settlement by showing his willingness to give rebate to an extent of 20% of the Petition claim in case the Respondent come for one time settlement. Having considered the nature of dispute, it appears that the said proposal is reasonable. But, the Respondent is continuously absent and he is not coming forward for settlement. In fact, he is not even turned up for filing Written Statement. As such, it is clear that the Respondent is not ready for amicable settlement through conciliation. Thus, it is clear that the dispute did not settle as per Section 22-C(7) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. Hence, this case is taken for decision by virtue of powers vested under Section 22-C(8) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. Accordingly, this case is posted for evidence. Both the parties are permitted to adduce evidence by way of Affidavit. For Affidavit and production of original documents.	13.01.2021
