1	60/2019	Petitioner's Counsel is present and filed Memo with SMS intimation regarding proposal of settlement. He is also ready for settlement through conciliation. But, the Respondent is absent. The Petitioner has made a proposal in the Notice for settlement by offering to give monthly installments for repayment of the Petition claim. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances the case, that proposal appears to be just and reasonable. But, the Respondent is not coming forward for settlement. In fact, he did not come forward to file Written Statement also. It appears that the Respondent is not interested for settlement through conciliation. As such, it is held that the dispute did not settle as per Section 22-C(7) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. Hence, this case is taken for decision by virtue of powers vested under Section 22-C(8) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. Accordingly, this case is posted for evidence. Both the parties are permitted to adduce evidence by way of Affidavit. For Affidavit and production of original documents.	30.03.2021

4	163/2019	No representation on behalf of the Petitioner. In spite of granting sufficient opportunity, the Petitioner did not come forward to submit on the question of limitation. It is a matter of 2019. No grounds for further adjournment. Hence, on the basis of available material on record, this Adalat proceeded to pass appropriate order. Records perused. Original petition of this dispute was dismissed on 25.10.2019 for non-prosecution. The Petitioner has filed Application under Order IX Rule 9 of the CPC seeking restoration of the

		petition on 17.02.2020 i.e., after 112 days of dismissal of the petition. But, such an application has to be filed within 30 days from the date of dismissal order under Article 122 of the Limitation Act, 1963. The Petitioner has not even sought for condonation of delay in filing the Application after expiry of prescribed period. The Petitioner has not come forward to give any explanation in this regard. Thus, it is clear that the Application filed for restoration is hopelessly barred by time and liable to be rejected. In the result, the following order is passed: ORDER Restoration Application filed by the Petitioner on 17.02.2020 is rejected as barred by time.
